ME

“ Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Franklin family with these comforting words: When a child dies, it is difficult for the bereaved father. “O that I might have died, I myself, instead of you,” lamented King David when his son Absalom died.—2 Samuel 18:33. In times of loss, we are most helped by genuine comfort, comfort that has a solid basis in God’s promises. “[God] will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces...for God himself has spoken it.” (Isaiah 25:8) No one will die or weep because of losing a loved one. What a blessed change! I am very sorry for the loss of your precious son. May God's Word comfort you and your family. Sincerely, Meryl ~ crochetmerylsway@gmail.com
