

Agnes Marie Thiltgen

July 28, 1929 - January 10, 2017

Agnes Marie Thiltgen, daughter of the late Herman Seiler and Caroline (Houselog) Seiler, was born July 28, 1929 in Zwingle, Iowa. She grew up and worked the family farm along with her father, mother, and her brothers and sisters. She attended school at the Franklin School in Zwingle, Iowa.

On November 18, 1948 in LaMotte, Iowa, Agnes was united in marriage to Harry Anthony Thiltgen. They were blessed with seven children and remained in Iowa until 1963 when the family moved to the Newburg, Missouri area. Agnes and Harry operated the Onyx Mountain Caverns for several years.

Agnes was a devoted mother, who spent her life caring for her children, and grandchildren at the family home. She enjoyed preparing meals grown from the family garden, as well as baking many delightful deserts. Agnes was known by her family, friends, and other visitors to the home, as a person who loved all children. In her spare time, she enjoyed going to flea markets to set up and sell items as well as to search for the perfect cookie jar or salt and pepper shakers to add to her collection.

Agnes was a devoted Catholic, who was a long time member of St. Robert Bellarmine Catholic Church. She was a member of the Pulaski County Historical Society and she also volunteered for Good Samaritans Resource Center to help needy families.

Agnes passed away Tuesday, January 10, 2017 while at the Rolla Manor Care Center of Rolla, Missouri having attained the age of eighty-seven years. She will be sadly missed, but fondly remembered by all those that knew and loved her.

“ The Church Foundation In My Life

I gave thought to the fact that the foundations of my life are leaving this earth, more rapidly. Several key figures in my life have taken their place with our Lord Jesus Christ, the most recent being Agnes Thiltgen.

My life has always been focused around the Catholic Church, with St. Robert Bellarmine Church being its starting point. Growing up several key families were a part of my life including: The Wesley Family, The Rosipal Family, The Bogad Family, The Campeau Family, The Thiltgen Family, The Wilking Family, The Bohr Family, The Ferris Family, The Weatherly Family, The Schomer Family, The LaMountain Family, and many others. Monsignor Sommer and all our past priests played no small role in my faith formation as well. The heads of these families (moms and dads) were foundational in my life and serve as pillars to my faith life. Many will ask how? The answer is by their lives and example each week.

Whether through their attendance at mass, volunteering in the community, serving on the Alter and Rosary Society, preparing for a wedding or funeral, serving as a Knight, teaching CCD; their lives gave me an example to strive toward. As an adult, I still look back fondly on the times they shared. Mostly, these times were at mass on Sunday, or at a church related function. Not always were they faith related, but they always seemed to tie back to that faith. I remember fishing with Harry or Mr. Campeau. I remember Tootsie Roll drives. I remember Polka parties and dancing. I spent most of my childhood weekends at the Rosipal's home. I remember stern looks from Monsignor Sommers. Most of all I remember a caring adult role model, in each of these individuals.

These individuals were/are authentic in their lives and how they interacted with me, and my family. I remember going to the Thiltgen's for fun nights on the weekend, cave exploring with Harry, pear picking, etc. I also remember Agnes spanking me with a sauce pan, when she was babysitting me, while mom and dad were out of town. My kids and I remember Agnes coming to my parents to visit, with my Godmother Marilyn. They didn't have to come see my parents, but they wanted to do so. Again, all these pillars in my life gave me examples to live up to. I still haven't spanked someone with a sauce pan. However, I have not been afraid to use my hand, and I thought about the pan.

I guess what I am saying is that I hope that the families I interact with at church can see me and my family as a pillar. Almost every year of my life, I have taken a picture with my family in front of St. Robert Bellarmine Church. My faith was formed there and continues from there. It grows each day thanks to these same pillars from my life. I hope and want to be that authentic Catholic role model to the future Catholics I encounter. This will be my tribute to these pillars from my childhood and throughout my life.

God grant them peace and eternal rest and may his perpetual light shine upon them. I hope one day to see each of them in Heaven, thank them, and show them the individuals I brought too.
