“ Fred was indeed a very special person, he came to my rescue several times in the past, I lost contact with him through the years, but still see his smiling face, I was stunned when I found out. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ I'll miss you, my dear friend. I regret that I will not be able to attend the memorial service for you. Dang trucking job! So many memories that have been coming back to me as I lay awake in my truck at night. Too bad we didn't get the chance to create some more. Goodbye, my friend.##imported-begin##Brian Bowser##imported-end##

“ It was such a shock to realize who it was when the story played on the news. I didn't want to be right but now that I know I just want to say how very sorry I am to lose an old acquaintance and friend. Going back a lot of years I remember the handsome young man. It is so unfortunate things had to end this way.

Remembering you fondly Fred Sax and missing the thought of you just being here. Waynesville was your home a lot longer than the news media realized.

With warm remembrances of days gone by.
