

Alysha Ann Cook

April 14, 1987 - August 29, 2020

Alysha Ann Cook was born April 14th 1987 to Catherine and Ted Cook at Cannon AFB, New Mexico.

She lived and grew up most of her life in Waynesville, MO where she attended Waynesville High School. Alysha enjoyed the outdoors, specifically going to the river. She was extremely passionate about her music and art where she was often found with headphones on and a coloring book in her hands. She loved the color baby blue and looking up at the night sky. Le-Le was a beautiful, smart, amazing, unique and funny person.

She loved all of her family and friends with all her heart and showed it in her own ways. Alysha would want everyone at peace, knowing she is now forever resting In the arms of God.

She leaves the following to cherish her memory...her daughter Hallie, mother Catherine, stepfather Tony, two sisters Erin and Shannon, two brothers Timothy and Shawn, three nieces Levea, Ilyanna and Delia, two nephews Keagan and Justin, and a host of relatives and friends. Proceeded in death by father Ted Cook, Grandparents Carol and Roy Dye, Grandparents Cookie and Vera Cook.
