“ Anna was my big sister and I loved her very much. I remember babysitting her kids when I was around 14, Gary was stationed in Korea at the time. She paid me by letting me pick out an outfit from Dillard's. She kept me in style for sure. I loved spending time with her. She had the most amazing laugh and the biggest heart of anyone I know. There will never be anyone like her again. She loved going to the casino. I remember about 4 years back, we all went to the casino for my moms birthday, me, Anna, my dad, my mom, and my brother. She gave us all 100.00 to gamble with, she got a big tax refund that year. We all had so much fun and everyone of us won. She was an amazing sister and I will miss her very much. Thank you, Tina
