

Arthur "Artie" Bill Glover

August 30, 1958 - February 22, 2025

Arthur Bill Glover, "Artie" as he was known by, was born August 30, 1958, in Hammond, Indiana, to Billy Carmack Glover and Beatrice Frances Asbell Cundiff, and went to school in Highland, Indiana. At age seventeen, Artie entered the Army Bootcamp and was discharged, going back home to Hammond where he was raised. In the late 80's, early 90's, Artie decided to make his way to Missouri where he lived out the remainder of his life.

On October 8, 1977, Artie was united in marriage to Penny Colleen Lewis in Bridgeview, Illinois. Artie and Penny made many wonderful lasting memories together for over forty-seven years while raising their precious daughters, Sandi, Chrystal, and Tamra.

Artie's chosen career path was that of a long-haul truck driver. He also enjoyed all genres of music and was a big NASCAR fan. He enjoyed the simple things in life, being outdoors camping, and getting together with his family. However, Artie's most prized possessions were things that money could never buy; times spent with his family and friends were what he treasured most in life.

Artie was preceded in death by his father, Billy Carmack Glover and step-mother, Opal; his step-father, Hugh Cundiff; two sisters, Kathy Sloan, and JoAnn Rawlings; three brothers, Fred, Marvin, and Mike Cundiff.
