“ I first met Gus about 50 years ago. I was pastor of Westside Baptist in Waynesville, MO and we needed someone to tune a piano. I was told Gus could do it. When I found him we became friends. I served as his pastor at First Baptist, Saint Robert, MO.

“ Our deepest condolences to Cassie, family and dear friends during this season of bereavement. When I met Gus during a Gideon Presentation a few years ago at First Baptist Church St Robert, I was impressed by his obviously gift for music. The overall respect for Gus was evident as the choir and congregation followed his leadership and directions. Since that first time favorable impression, Gus has always been on my mind, wishing him the very best as he role modeled a distinguished life. We are confident that our almighty God will honor his presence before him and provide his gifts of a heavenly chorus and peaceful rest while leaning on the everlasting arms of his Savior!
