

Barbara Jane Bowling

April 28, 1951 - May 26, 2014

Barbara Jane Bowling, daughter of the late George W. and Dorothy Jane (Mitchell) Green was born on April 28, 1951 in Dixon, Missouri. She attended elementary school in Dixon and then attended Laquey Schools.

At the age of 11, Barbara made an important decision in her life and was baptized at the Idumea Baptist Church and was a member there until she moved her membership several years later to the New Friendship Baptist Church.

On April 5, 1969, Barbara was united in marriage to Henry Hale Bowling. They were blessed with two sons and one daughter. They lived in the area known as Turkey Ridge for several years and then moved to Swedeborg.

Barbara was a hardworking woman. She worked as the head baker at H&L Grocery of Crocker, Playcraft, a seamstress on Fort Leonard Wood and in the cafeteria at the Laquey school. She was also an entrepreneur and owned and operated a restaurant and a doll shop in Buckhorn.

In her spare time, Barbara enjoyed traveling, sewing, making handmade clothes for dolls, and spending time in her flower beds. She loved flowers and enjoyed watching them grow and bloom. Most importantly, she loved her family and friends and treasured the times that she was able to spend with them.

Barbara passed away Monday, May 26, 2014 in her sister's home after a long and courageous battle with cancer having attained the age of 63 years and 28 days. She will be sadly missed, but fondly remembered by all those that knew and loved her.
