

Betty Jean Wagner

March 15, 1956 - December 19, 2019

Betty Jean Wagner, daughter of the late Daniel James and Katherine Irene (Tucker) Shell, was born May 3, 1956 in Richland Center, Wisconsin where she grew up and attended school.

On June 20, 1980, Betty was united in marriage to Bill J. Wagner. They shared over 22 years of marriage together. At the time of their marriage, Betty gained a daughter, Donna, and Betty and Bill were blessed with two daughters, Candy and Jenny.

Betty was able to stay home and raise her daughter, Candy and she took great pride in providing a warm and inviting home for her family. In her spare time, she enjoyed watching cooking shows, playing a Bible verse game on her phone, and riding her chair to visit with friends. Most importantly, she loved spending time with her family, especially the grandchildren. She loved playing with her grandkids, whether it was imagination games, board games, being outside or taking selfies on their phones, she loved every minute she spent with them.

“ Sending my deepest heartfelt sympathy and love to my sister Candy, my family, and Betty's many friends. I know you all are missing her.

The best gift my Dad ever gave me was my step-family. Betty always treated me as if I were her own. She was a bright light whose heart was full of love and kindness. I never heard her say a bad word about anyone. If there is a heaven, I'm sure Betty and Dad are together dancing at a huge family reunion. You will be missed beyond measure. Rest in peace Mom. XOXO
