“ Dear Tom and Nancy, Doug and Children,

Julie and I were shocked to hear of the passing of Brittany, and are so sorry for your loss. She was a inspiration to all who met her, and she was a moving force and inspiration to the volleyball team at Tabernacle. She was always smiling, and she made you believe in yourself and that you could achieve all you wanted to if you worked hard for it, it would come. She was respect, courage and love. She saw the good in all people and loved her teammates. I feel that God met her at the golden gates and has a love assignment for her in his heaven. All our love to you all, Julie Workman- Anaya, Mike and Linda Feeney

“ Brittany has been my friend since our first day on active duty together. We met while in-processing into Fort Bragg, worked together on the same unit, were running buddies, and promoted together as baby LTs. We have kept in touch throughout the years and our various duty stations and assignments, and I can genuinely say my world was a brighter place with her in it. I will miss her so very much. All my love to Doug, Sabil, Ben, and the rest of the family. ❤️

“ I was always impressed by Brittany's calm spirit at church with the little toddlers and her determination with her studies and experiences. She loved her family so very much and was a godly example to me. Our husbands loved to cook and bike and we benefited from our husbands' homemade pizzas and extreme bike experiences, sometimes with kids. I loved the fact that she enjoyed Great Wolf Lodge's waterslides as much as I did. We miss you and we're so proud of Doug, Sabil and Baby Ben.

“ Brittany and her parents came over to our house one night for a visit when she was a small child. Ryan had gone to camp that week and they really missed him. I had a statue of a motion-detector dog that fascinated Brittany. She would walk by it and it would "Bark". When they got ready to leave I asked Brittany if she'd like to have the dog and she said yes, so I gave it to her. She decided to play a trick on her neighbor. They had a fence between their houses and she put the dog up near the fence and activated it when her neighbor came outside. He did not know his neighbors had a dog....!!! They had a good laugh about that.

I am praying for you all everyday. We know God doesn't make mistakes. We just don't understand when He decides to take our loved ones home before we are ready for them to leave us. Some day we will have the answers. In the meantime, we must continue to trust that God knows best. May God bless you all as you serve Him.

“ Brittany was such a sweet person. I am so grateful to have met her and Doug in Germany. We became friends so easily. One of the things I admired most about her was her relaxed, no-stress approach to things. She was so much fun to be around. A favorite memory we have is our couples trip to Prague, we had a blast! It brings me comfort and joy that she knew Jesus as her savior. We shall see each other again my friend and we will love on your family her on earth. We miss and love you! ❤️

“ We have had so many I wouldn't know where to stop. my heart and my mind is flooded with all the fun we've had together on vacations. But I guess the best one was when we were in Yellowstone and we came across donkey's and you wanted to get up close, so I told you to open the window when you did 1 of the donkeys put his head in the window, and you started screaming hes going to eat me hes going to eat me. I couldn't stop laughing I love you so much. ❤️💔
