“ Hutch was my team chief at Mclellan, 1849EIS. He worked us hard but treated us good. One time we were building a radar tower on a small mountain top 100 miles north of LaVegas. It was in the winter time and with the wind it was about -40 deg. Hutch was down below in his heated trailer telling us to get to work," It aint that cold boys" he said. We stayed in the trucks til lunch and then went back to the trailer. Hutch was sitting there in a t-shirt with his boots off,cause it must have 100 deg in there, asking us how much work we got done. Then with a big smile said " I expected you down here alot sooner", now let's go back to Beatty and have some fun.

*To Hutch's family,
I am sorry for your loss.*

*Sincerely,
