“ From Your Older Sis Joy C, you called me: My Dearest Beloved Brother - Not a day goes by that you are not in my thoughts. I loved My little Bubba (I couldn't say Brother when we were toddlers). I still LOVE you, always did, always will. I look at our pictures when we were little tykes living in Texas with our Beautiful & Loving Mother. We broke the SeeSaw - Remember? Those Pinkerton Twins were bullies and like to torment you all the time. Their father was a Policeman and they lived across the street from us! I fought those bullies off you and I enjoyed it - cuz I was bigger than them! I liked being your Big Sis and taking care of My Bubba. I didn't want to let you leave ABQ NM, to go back to where you were before. I knew I would Never see you again? I begged you to stay until you could get well - you had been so sick. I tried to warn everybody that you needed more medical treatment...Nobody listened? And so I lost My Baby Bubba. I wish I could have fought the Bad Bullies off and keep you Safe, but Time & Distance were always our adversaries! I LOVE YOU BUBBA, I will always be your JOY C....

“ Deuce was my brother-in-law. Every time I seen him, he always had a quick smile and something to say. I will truly miss the way we used to 'go' at each other (all in fun, of course). I will only remember the good times, Ducece would not want any of his fa###imported-begin###Shirley Hardin###imported-end##
