

Cecile Sigler

January 9, 1916 - July 15, 2015

Cecile O. (Williams) Sigler daughter of the late Samuel Hale and Alice Louisa (Taylor) Williams was born in Mitchell, Arkansas on January 9, 1916.

Cecile grew up in Viola, Arkansas. She walked three miles to attend a rural school in Independence and later attended Valley View.

On June 27, 1935 Cecile was married to her one true love, Johnnie Albert Sigler and to this union 3 daughters were born, Glenda, Norma and Johnice. Cecile and John left the day after they were married and moved to McFaden, Arkansas, where Johnnie had a job as a mail carrier. The happy couple lived there for four years before moving to West Plains, Missouri. The little family bought a small farm and moved to Richland, Missouri in 1952, where they remained until they both went home to be with their Lord.

Cecile went to work as a cook at the Richland Elementary School and later worked at the Richland Care Center for nearly eighteen years until she retired in 1991.

Cecile was saved at an early age and joined the Baptist church and attended Beulah Baptist church for many years.

She enjoyed making quilts for her family and gardening. She raised a big garden every year and canned and gave away the produce to family and friends as long as her health permitted. She was also known for her cooking, especially her homemade chicken and noodles, rolls and blackberry cobbler. Cecile was no stranger to hard work and grew up growing cotton in Arkansas and worked beside her husband on their farm.

Cecile was preceded in death by her parents, her beloved husband John (April 8, 1998), daughter Glenda Louetta Pool (July 16, 2002), granddaughter, Yvonne Stovall (May 15, 2015), five sisters, Sally and Hester Williams, Hurl Nichols, Alpha Holstine and Alice Orr, five brothers, Herbert, Audra, Bill, Kirby and Neal Williams.

Cecile is survived by her two daughters, Norma Lea Baker of Spring, TX and Johnice Persinger of Richland, MO; 6 grandchildren: Ronda Mullis (Greg) of Houston, TX, Janet Holmes (Scott) of Tomball, TX, Melissa Douglas (Steve) of Richland, MO, Bruce Ogle (Susan) of Richland, MO, Tracy Ogle (Jeannette) of Unionville, MO and Cecilia Luna (Travis) of Richland, MO; numerous great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren; one sister: Wilma Smith of Bexar, AR; several nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Services were held at 2:00 p.m, Friday, July 17, 2015 in the Memorial Chapel of Richland with Pastor Christopher Hendrix, Sr. officiating. Soloist, Becky Lercher sang "Without Him" and "There's Room at the Cross." Serving as escorts were Bruce Ogle, Tracy Ogle, Joshua Quesenberry. Travis Luna Jared Stoval, Steve Douglas, Justin Douglas and Wes Douglas. Burial followed in the Oaklawn Cemetery.

Services were under the direction of Memorial Chapel of Richland.

“ I will always remember going out to your garden and picking green beans with you, making homemade ice cream, how you always wanted to make sure I was fed and even if I said yes you still wanted to make me something. Sitting on the couch last month and you putting your hand on my knee and telling me that Brayden will be ok because you will watch over him. Your pure love for me and my family can never be replaced, and I know how worried you were about Brayden and always asking how he was. I like to believe you were waiting until you could see him and hold him before you were ready to go home to be with the lord. You were the best part of our family and I'm so lucky to have had you for the last 27 years. Please tell Grandma Glenda, Grandpa Sigler, and Aunt Vone I love and miss them. When you see my baby boy up there give him lots of love from his Mommy and spoil him rotten for me until I can be with you all again. 💙

So sorry for the loss of Aunt Cecile. She is one of my all time favorite people. I didn't get to see her very often but she always had a smile and a big hug for me. I used to go see her and Uncle Johnny with my Grandma and Grandpa Wise often when I was young and always had a great time. Oh, you never went hungry at her house either! Always had a big meal when we were there and the food was some of the best around. Even as she got along in age whenever we would come down for a visit or meet for a reunion she would cook up a storm and if you missed it you really missed a treat. Goodbye Cecile, you will be truly missed by all.

*With love,
Wes Wise*

“ I can't even begin to say what my Grandma meant to me. I love her more than I can even explain. She's been with me my whole life. She helped raise me, saved my life when I had a heart defect. I honestly don't know what I'm going to do without her. She is without a doubt the most wonderful person that I know. The only thing that provides any comfort is that I will see her again one day. On her last day here I said through tears Grandma I don't know what I am going to do without you and she said I don't know what I would do without you either but you have to go on and be strong and don't be sad for me, I'm ready when the good Lord calls me home.

“ Grandma Sigler...even to those who weren't exactly related...was the sweetest lady...and a great cook. Years ago she cooked at Richland Care Center. BUT..yes, she did have a stubborn streak ha She's my nieces/nephews great grandmother so I'm "sorta" family. Its been tough these last several months with Her ill and aged and Yvonne so ill. Now...God bless this family and let the healing and adjustment be swift and easy.
