“ Never had the honor of meeting Chuck, but everything I ever heard about him was wonderful. Traci, remember you and your family are constantly in my prayers. I know that you know he's in a better place and is pain free, but I also know the pain you're in. I love you guys.

“ The last Christmas that my Mom celebrated in 1999, Chuck had put together a Thomas Kincaide picture puzzle and framed it for her. He was helping us load the car. There had been a layer of frost on the ground. I carried the picture and as I walked down the hill in the yard, I slipped . It broke the frame, and embarrassed me. Chuck laughed, but said he could fix it. Also. I got a kick out of watching Chuck and Mom interact. He loved us all. I'll miss you brother-in-law and you calling me "Sis". I'm very glad he's pain free and with his Lord, The Christ. Love you, Traci
