“ I worked at the County Health Dept. when Chuck worked there years ago. One of us always had the coffee made and ready for staff when they got there. He is one of the kindest and one of the most professional people I have met since I moved to Pulaski County. I am sure he will continue to watch over you. He will be missed.

“ Charles and Ryan, I am sorry for your loss and hurt. I came to appreciate your dad quite a bit in these later years. I know it meant a lot to mom, & to me, when he would stop in and bring her communion, but that he would also pray with her and talk with her. After momma passed, your dad stopped in to check on my dad and I got to talk with him a while. Again, I appreciated that a lot and I know his friendship and care meant a lot to my dad. I look forward to seeing him in heaven one day and pray that hope will give you strength and comfort in the days, months and years ahead. -Becky Nichols-Roberts
