“ We met Mr. Charles while he was at Sunset Village. My mother is there. He wad so kind to her after my father passed away. I am glad he got to know my dad. Loved his stories. When we came to see my mom we found out he passed away. We sure do miss him. We live in Arkansas and he told us he would look after my mom and he did. He even cried when my father passed away. He was so kind. We sure did love him. Such a smart man. He will be missed. Angel and Karen Ponte.

“ I met Charlie 10 months ago and I'm glad I did. He and my father were both in the Army Air Corps during World War 2. He knew more about Cardinal baseball than any person I've ever had the pleasure to meet. He was full of life and always cheerful. It was a true joy knowing him.

I do radio shows on KTXR-FM in Springfield and Mr. White called me often over the last 25 years, so that I considered him a good friend. I already miss him and his interesting phone calls! Wayne Glenn
