“ I've known Chet for well over thirty years. From letters and finally in person, he was a sweet friend. I hope he is enjoying his freedom from a body full of pain, that he is sitting at the feet of Jesus.

“ Chester Payne was a devoted son to my father as any other son that my dad had and as much a brother to all of us Booker boys, and we treated him as such! Chet was a very good person to be around, he stayed with us on a few occasions and worked with us as if he was our own, which he was and was a hoot to be around! I think of him often when someone says a certain word or phrase, such as high voltage, or by-damned, which was his favorite go to! There is so many good things about Chet to mention on here! We will miss you brother!
