“ *Bill and I are so saddened for the loss of Chu, but so thankful that we had the privilege of knowing her. We heard her sing from the depths of her soul in the BASICS gathering a few years ago and again in the morning service recently. We are sure she is singing and worshipping our Lord Jesus in Heaven now. We were so sorry she had to endure the ravages of cancer on this earth, and prayed that the Lord would bring her healing and comfort. We were disappointed that He chose not to heal her in this life, but know she is wholly healed in Heaven. We are thankful that she endured with grace and faith that brought peace to all who knew her. We will miss her precious radiant smile and sweet hug when we saw her at church, but we know she is in the arms of Jesus without pain or tears today. We are so thankful for the gift of her love that radiated throughout the Celebration of her life service on Sunday afternoon. She was always so thoughtful, and the service was truly a tribute to how much she blessed everyone who knew her. Our prayers are with you, Ty, and all her family as you go through this adjustment period to accept her absence and cherish her memory. We love you brother, and want to continue to be your friend, available whenever you need us. God bless and keep you in His care and comfort. Love always,
