“ You were one of my first "chat buddies". You shared your opinions and wisdom and I gladly accepted whatever you had to say as you were like my 2nd "Daddy". I'll miss talking with you on fb and truly enjoyed our telephone conversations (even though we hadn't shared a call in quite some time).

You were a true gentleman and a very real person. You weren't afraid to share your thoughts and opinions, especially when it came to politics.

I'm grateful to have known you "Cliff" Dave.

To Dave's family, my deepest condolences. He was a wonderful man and very proud of his family!

With Sympathy,

Nancy A. Felice

“ David...Since we first met online in American Singles in 2002, we went from being chat friends to real life friends. We had so much fun and laughs and I will miss you so much.

I will cherish the memories of "Cliff" in the chat room and "David" in real life. It's hard to narrow down one favorite memory but I guess it would have to be the day I said I was melting in the chat room and you changed my chat name from Snowball to Slush Puddle. You had me laughing so hard my stomach hurt. But that was you..always joking..always having fun. And who can forget the private joke between us about the Valley of Fire. Anytime I visit there, I will be thinking of you my friend and a smile will cross my face and I'm sure a tear or two. I will always cherish your visits to Vegas to see me and the trip I made to Wickenburg to see you. Rest in peace my dear friend and...
