“ Many years ago, Doug read a book that impacted his life and mine. Finishing Strong was the title and I remember vividly our first phone conversation regarding this book. We had travelled quite a few miles together over the years; his family and mine. While it was not always easy juggling careers and family and ministry, there was always a constant; Doug was going to finish strong. Not only was he going to finish strong, he was going to pull along as many as he could to do the same.

His legacy of love and faith stands as a guide for all who wish to finish in a way that glorifies God.

“ The Whitcraft and Oursbourn families were joined by the marriage of our son, Adam to Doug and Susie's beautiful daughter, Anna in 2020.

Though we weren't afforded the time to get very well acquainted with the family, the few times we did...We could easily see that he served God, loved his family deeply & greatly enjoyed spending time with them, as well as, his friends.

In the short time we knew him we found Doug to be a kind, gentle man with few words. However, we could see the coach in him recognizing that he was sitting back, taking it all in so he could analyze the day later...lol. Doug's home...but his legacy will live on through his family he was so proud of & all those lives he's touched as he spread the Good News!

Love & continued prayers to the entire family. God bless you everyone!

“ Really sorry for the loss. May The Almighty give strength to the family. Jeriah's dad was a good man with an infectious laugh. I met him just once during my trip to KC in 2016, but still remember his warm welcome and the way he thanked me for coming to watch his team's game. Need to mention, his team's football game was my first ever live American Football game.

Rest In Peace Sir!

This is the screenshot of my first ever live football game, something which I will cherish life long.

“ Don and I cherish the memories we have of Doug and Susie and their family being a part of Cornerstone Church in Mound City. Doug shared his gift of music being on our worship leader. We send our love to his family. May God's Grace be upon you alone at this sad time. Don and Judy Poole
