“ The most righteous and upright man I've ever had the blessing to know, to love and befriend. He never cussed, drank or smoked. He always had the best, grounded advice. He never said an unkind word. Not once. Everyone knew him wherever he went. The story of Job- the suffering, the sacrifice and the faith of a true hero. My hero. We should all learn from his selfless journey. I love you Darrell Lee. Put in a good word for me, would you? Peace now, brother- Ride free.

“ I worked with Darrell for many years at Electrovert. Darrell was always a great person to work with. If you didn't have a smile on your face, he would do his best to make you laugh. Darrell had a unique outlook on life. His Friday afternoon quitting time Tarzan call on the plant intercom was welcomed and priceless. Darrell, you are healed now. RIP brother.
