“ Dieter was a great man. He lived an exemplary life of civic virtue and service. Dieter was a political leader in Marlborough who tirelessly served his Town, Connecticut and this great Constitutional Republic. Dieter was Girl Scout leader, with his beloved wife Linda, inspiring many young women to follow his and Linda's example of living the Girl Scout Oath. I am saddened we have lost a great soul from this world. I will miss my friend. We now must carry on his work, but more importantly, we must strive to live by his great virtues each in our own way. I extend my condolences to the Zimmer family. May your memories of this holy man always be a blessing.
