“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked in the warehouse and she worked in photo and it was always a joy to see her. She would tell us she had ice cream for and she usually did. She made us all our own banana breads which were amazing! She was always so kind. We would go to photo just to say hi to her! I just saw her not that long ago and talked with her for a bit since I got a different job I didn't get to see her as much, but when I had the chance I would stop by just to tell her hi. She will be surely missed
