“ I can remember going to Grandmas for a week, and Uncle Robert and Aunt Joan would pick us up to stay a few days. We were always so excited to go, and play with our cousins. I never realized how much work Aunt Joan had to do with us extra. She always gave a hug, kiss and a smile. Glad to see us, and always made us feel welcome and loved. She was a very special lady who will be missed very much. Our glue that held us together. Linda Robinson
