“ Dwight Nutting was a kind, giving man who was there for anyone, but especially for his family and veterans. I remember him being volunteer of the year and Tina was like, here we go again!! He loved and gave with his whole heart, which was BIG on the inside. I wish I could be there to say a proper thank you Dwight for being you. Tina, Teresa and Rebecca were his all!

“ Dwight has been an outstanding role model of selfless service. If you needed someone, he was there. If you needed someone to stay longer, he was there. Our deepest condolences and prayers for his family during this season of bereavement and we thank them for their willingness to let him take care of so many others with his one-of-a-kind compassion.

“ I have known Dwight for at least 40 years and a truly remarkable man he was his dedication to every job he had every organization that belonged to his faith in God and man never wavered helping Tina this last her love never for she really believed in her vows never list because of her love for Dwight he was well taken care up until his final hours the countless trips for medical he wanted for nothing because he was so loved not only by Tina but his daughter teresa and his beautiful granddaughter Rebecca she was the light of his life. Dwight left the earth for our beautiful heavenly home Dwight Rest in Peace you're not in anymore pain the Bible assures us of that.
