

Evan Bradley Shackelford

June 26, 1960 - March 22, 2026

Evan Bradley Shackelford, son of the late Henry Paul Shackelford and Shirley Pauline (Laughlin) Shackelford, was born on June 26, 1960, in St. Louis, Missouri. He spent his childhood in the Waynesville area, attending local schools and graduating from Waynesville High School with the Class of 1978.

Evan was recognized as a dedicated and hardworking individual, affectionately known as the “clock doc.” His talent for repairing clocks was well known, and he took immense pride and joy in restoring timepieces brought to him for repair.

A lover of the outdoors, Evan cherished exploring back roads, discovering new places, fishing, and simply enjoying the sunshine. He was also an avid animal lover, actively supporting local shelters for homeless and abused animals. Down-to-earth and kind-hearted, Evan valued spending time with his family, cherishing every moment together.

Evan made a profession of faith early in his life and truly loved the Lord. He found joy in attending church and worshipping with his church community. His faith was central to his love for life, children, and helping those less fortunate. Evan was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need.

Evan was blessed with one son, Bradley, whom he adored. Bradley passed away on November 18, 2011, and Evan deeply mourned his loss. On Sunday, March 22, 2026, Evan entered his heavenly home, where Bradley was waiting for him. Evan passed away at his home at the age of 65.

Evan will be greatly missed and fondly remembered by his family and friends. He leaves behind his brother, Eric Paul Shackelford of Huntsville, AL; family members Jim and Barbara Thomas of Dixon, MO; as well as other relatives and friends who will cherish his memory.

Private family services will be held at a later date, and arrangements are under the care and direction of Memorial Chapels and Crematory of Waynesville / St. Robert.

“We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.” – 2 Corinthians 5:8
