“ As a neighbor, classmate and great friend it was always a pleasure being around Evelyn. Playing at the creek when we were kids, neighbors in Kansas City and Parkville/Riverside and life long friend. She could always make almost anyone laugh and was strong willed and set in her ways. She will be missed by all whose lives she touched, and she touched many. Her fond memories shall live on in our hearts and minds forever. Rest In Peace Evelyn, your battles are over.
