

Florence Pauline Long

October 8, 1931 - October 7, 2022

Pauline loved her life on the farm. Gardening, working in her flowers, and music were her passion.

Always a loving mother, she put her daughters first. As a devoted farm wife, Pauline worked in the hay fields, helped with all tasks involving the herds she and Lloyd maintained.

Active and interested in politics, Pauline organized the Pulaski County Republican Women's Club. Adept at discovering motives in policy making, she remained an active voter throughout her life.

After hospitalization and rehab therapies, her only wish was to be able to return home – to her beloved farm.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Leonard and Marie Hedrick; sister: Juanita Langston of Tampa, Florida; and husband: Lloyd Wayne Long.

Pauline is survived by two sisters: Geraldine Marie Thornsberry and Betty Louise Gravis; two daughters: Phyllis Christine Zweerink of Swedeborg, Missouri and Anita Ann Davis and husband, Dennis of Evans, Georgia; two grandchildren: Thomas Jefferson Davis (Mary Katherine) of Evans, Georgia and Jesse Rae Buccafusco (Marty) of Atlanta, Georgia; five great grandchildren: Mason James Davis, Emma Grace Davis, and Patrick Blake Davis, all of Evans, Georgia and Augustus Long Buccafusco and Walter Rae Buccafusco of Atlanta, Georgia.

Private family service was held with Gerald Lee Marso officiating. Special music included "Where the Roses Never Fade," sung by soloist, Becky Lercher, and Daniel O'Donnell's recording of "Flying with Angels," was also played. Serving as escorts were Alan Marso, Ricky Zweerink, David Pemberton, Danny Pemberton, John Deardeuff, and Dwight Marso. Pauline was laid to rest in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery, Iberia, Missouri.

Services were under the care and direction of Memorial Chapel of Richland.

Contributions in memory of Florence Pauline Long can be made to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital and may be left at the funeral home.
