Frankie loved many things but those that come to mind are spending time with his family; he felt so blessed to be the proud father of his three beautiful daughters and was especially proud of his grandkids. After 62 years in the world, Frankie changed his residence from Lebanon, Missouri, to Heavenly home on the morning of Thursday, July 8, 2021, while in the Boone Hospital Center, Columbia, MO.

Frankie leaves behind to cherish his memory, three daughters: Lindsay Carlson of Lebanon, MO, Elisha Melendez (Francisco) of Laquey, MO, and Kristy Williams (Jason) of Richland, MO; 10 grandchildren: Elijah, Sarah, David, & Emily Carlson, Xzavior, Trenton, and Bryant Melendez, Kelsie, Logan, and Jaykob Williams; sister: Ruby Williams of Richland, MO; 2 sister-in-law's: Sharon Tucker of Richland, MO, and Carol Tucker of Springfield, MO; one brother-in-law: Larry Evans of Lebanon, MO; his faithful dogs: Fergie and Rihanna; several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and dear friends.

“ I first met Frank in 1997 and had a close relationship, with him as my father-in-law, for over 22 years. It still seems so unreal to me. My thoughts and prayers are with Lindsay, Elisha and Kristy during this time.
