

Garry Junior Landreth

April 18, 1944 - September 2, 2015

Garry Junior Landreth was born April 18th, 1944 and left this world September 2nd, 2015 at the age of 71 years, 5 months and 2 days.

Garry was born in Duke, Missouri, the son of Junior and Edith (Wilson) Landreth.

Garry leaves behind two children: Shane Landreth of Columbia, Missouri and Christina Landreth of Laquey, Missouri; 7 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren; two sisters: Wanda Brown of Richland, Missouri and Rhonda Friend (Clayton) of Prescott, Arkansas; one brother: Rick Landreth (Patricia) of Richland, Missouri; sister-in-law: Gudrun Landreth of Richland, Missouri; several nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Garry was preceded in death by his wife, Sue; an infant brother: Billy Jean; his parents, Junior and Edith and one brother: Jesse.

Garry loved music and greatly enjoyed going to nursing homes and singing to the residents. Anytime he had an opportunity to sing he would. Garry especially loved Elvis and did a great imitation of him.

Garry loved wrestling, football, baseball and boxing, and could do a mean imitation of Mohamed Ali. Garry also won medals and trophies in basketball.

Garry was loved and will be missed by his family and friends.

Services were held at 1:00 p.m., Saturday, September 5, 2015 with Pastor Fred Bobe and Pastor Christopher Hendrix officiating. Recorded music included: "I Can Only Image", "Go Rest High on that Mountain", "How Great Thou Art" and "Tears in Heaven" were played. Serving as escorts were Danny Brown, Jeremy Landreth, Shannon Brown, Ethan Foster, Tom Bennett and Frankie Urbas. Honorary escorts were Bill Rapp and Jerry Traw. Burial followed in the Watts Cemetery, near Duke, Missouri.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial contributions be made in memory of Garry Junior Landreth and may be left at the Memorial Chapel of Richland.

Services were under the direction of Memorial Chapel of Richland.
