“ George was one of my best friends along with a few others . When we were young we hung out almost everyday and practically lived at each other's houses . He called my mom his mom and I called his mom my mom . His parents were mine and mine were his also . We were like brothers and a part of me dies with him . He will be greatly missed and I will keep praying for his family and his children . I love you brother RIP your gone but will never be forgotten . Until the day we meet again I'll be thinking about all the crazy things we have done together
