As a young man, Harold worked for the Kentucky State Highway Department driving a dozer. He later went to West Virginia and worked in the coal mines.

In 1951, Harold entered the United States Army. He was a veteran of the Korean and Vietnam wars, and served his country faithfully and with great honor and dignity. He decided to further his education and attended Waynesville Vo-Tech from 1974-1976. His last employment was working in the mess halls at Ft. Leonard Wood.

Harold was a very caring and giving person. He took care of his dear friend, Geneva Gaddis when her health began failing, and provided for her until her death in 1992.
