“ Ilona you will be truly missed. You have known me since I was a child. My Mother didn't have too many German friends when she came to the states but then you came into our lives. You have always been a brave, beautiful, and strong woman. You are in a much more beautiful place than this world and you are at peace. You have strong and beautiful children and grandchildren that will carry on your memories and I will definitely always have mine. Rest in Heaven, Ilona! ❤️❤️
