“ Ilse had a wonderful way of blessing others as they readied themselves to leave. Instead of saying God Bless You, Ilse would say God Love You. To ask God to bless may have seemed redundant, because God continually blesses his people. When Ilse said God Love You, I really felt loved. Not only by God, but by this beautiful sister. Her profound joy was a sign of Christ in her. I will miss her. Peace and comfort to you, Monty, and to the rest of your families.

Ilse had a way of saying the phrase, 'God bless you' so that she would honor God. She understood that to ask God to bless someone seemed redundant, because God continually blesses us. Instead, she would say, "God love you." Always her parting words as I left her home. They made me feel very loved. She was a joyful, grateful spirit. And shared her beautiful smile readily. So loving and kind. The light of Christ was clearly at home in Ilse. I will miss her.

“ I have many memories of Ilse most of which came from time shared in our Women's Sunday School class. Ilse was an exceptionally strong lady in her life which was focused on her belief in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Ilse will be missed by many and never forgotten.
