

Jack Neal McCamon

February 25, 1952 - June 3, 2018

Jack Neal McCamon passed away in Pleasanton, California on Saturday, June 2, 2018. He was preceded in death by his parents Robert Hanson McCamon and Rose (Elam) McCamon.

Jack attended the Independence Baptist Church as a young man and his faith in Christ was very important.

Jack is survived by one daughter: LeAnn Millburn of Jefferson City, Missouri and LeAnn's mother: Judy of Holts Summit, Missouri; two grandchildren: Lisa Curry and Nicole Welch; three great grandchildren; three sisters: Wanda Crossland of Richland, Missouri, Faith McCamon of Springfield, Missouri, and Bonnie McCamon of Dublin, California; two brothers: David Bloch of Richland, Missouri, and John McCamon of Rockwall, Texas; many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends

Jack worked at Foremost-McKesson, Purolator, Detroit Tool, Durham and Dallas International in the oil fields of Texas.

Jack loved his boats and the Lakes of Missouri, Arkansas and Texas. He enjoyed boating, flying and had a passion for cars.

He will be sadly missed, but fondly remembered by all those that knew and loved him.

Services were held at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, June 16, 2018 in the Memorial Chapel of Richland with Pastor Chris Hendrix officiating. Jack's brother, John McCamon recalled his wonderful memories of Jack. Music was provided by David Elam and Laura Schoephorster. Serving as escorts were Bill Crossland, Greg Owens, Mike Scarlett, Travis Owens, Adam Letterman and Matthew Harrison. Serving as honorary escorts were David Elam and David Bloch. Burial followed in the Oaklawn Cemetery of Richland.
