“ He was just a little tyke, maybe three. We were attending a family event out at Empire School in Duncan. We hit it right off since we were all Green Bay Packer fans and we played on the swings and slide while the “grown ups” stayed inside where it was warm. It was probably only an hour that we played together but we never forgot the friend we made that day. He was a fun and sweet little kid. I am sorry the world will not benefit from his accomplishments going forward but he was, without doubt, a blessing while he was here and may his memory be a blessing also. May God comfort his precious family.
