“ Condolences to all of you. We remember Jim as being a friendly guy, never meeting a stranger and an extremely hard worker. Anyone who worked in the tire business and restaurant business as long as he did is not afraid of work. There is a saying that says "None of us get a pass on passing." The older we all get, the more we realize just how true this statement is. At some point, all that will be remaining of our lives is what memories we made with loved ones. God Bless.
