

James Cary Gibson

November 26, 1953 - November 6, 2012

James Cary Gibson passed away on November 6, 2012, following a brief illness. James was born on November 26, 1953, to James Russel and Norma Jean (Perkins) Gibson. James graduated from Richland High School in 1971.

James married Karen Foster on September 16, 1979. Three daughters were born to this union—Kacey Joeline Gibson, Andrea West, and Jessann Lundgren. James was the proud Papa of Chyler and Trent Pierce, Cale and Harlee West, and Kylee Mia and Lyla Lundgren. He was very proud of his family and always put their needs before his own.

James was very creative and enjoyed building toys and furniture for his family. He was a motorcycle enthusiast and loved tinkering with motorcycles. James had a positive outlook on life and was always ready to share his knowledge and understanding. He was always willing and ready to help a friend.

James is preceded in death by his parents. In addition to his children and grandchildren, James is survived by five brothers and sisters—Carol Hightower and husband Roger of Grand Junction, Colorado; David Gibson and wife Vicky of Columbia, Missouri; and L.E. Gibson and wife Sandra, Bobette Payne and husband Jerry, and John Gibson and wife Veena, all of Richland; and many other friends and relatives.

Graveside services will be held at the Oaklawn Cemetery on November 11, 2012, at 2 p.m. Memorial contributions may be left at the Memorial Chapel or First State Bank, Richland.

NORMA[PERKINS] SMITH - November 12, 2012 at 01:05 PM

“ Dave and I have many good memories- too many to count- of James and his family. I am so glad that we went to see him. Never knowing it would be the last.

Praying that God will hold you in his hands and give all the family comfort.

Stay STRONG because that is the way he would want it.

With our Greatest Sympathy, Dave & Beth Miller
