

James Lee Rawlings

July 24, 1965 - April 11, 2020

James Lee Rawlings, son of the late Hershel Lee Rawlings and Delores (Robinson) Rawlings, was born July 24, 1965 in Alton, Illinois. He passed away Saturday, April 11, 2020 in St. Robert, Missouri having attained the age of 54 years.

James grew up in Meadowbrook, Illinois and graduated from Civic Memorial High School in Bethalto, Illinois with the Class of 1983. James furthered his education and became a CNA (Certified Nurses' Assistant). He worked several years in the Alton, Illinois area before moving to Missouri.

After moving to the Waynesville, Missouri area, James worked at Casey's and at Price Cutter in Waynesville.

James was blessed with four children: Joshua Craig, Jacob Lee, Jared Richard, and Jessica Marie. He loved spending time with them and especially with his granddaughter, Addison Rose.

James loved to play guitar and music was his passion. He always knew who sang a particular song if he was asked. He enjoyed fishing, camping and just being outdoors. He also had a great sense of humor and always knew how to make someone laugh with a well-timed joke in good times and bad. He was always there when someone needed him.

James leaves to cherish his memory, his four children: Joshua Craig Ramirez of Waynesville, MO, Jacob Lee Rawlings of Newburg, MO, Jared Richard Rawlings of Richland, MO and Jessica Marie Rein and husband Drake Rein of Springfield, MO; brothers: Mark Rawlings and wife Tonya of Lebanon, MO, Stephen Dizmang and wife Verna Dizmang of South Roxanna, IL; granddaughter: Addison Rose Ramirez of Crocker, MO; ex-wife: Jennifer Washington of Newburg, MO; many nieces and nephews (which knew James as Uncle Chim Chim); numerous cousins and an abundance of friends throughout Missouri and Illinois; lifelong friends: Jeff Burcham of Alton, IL, Steve Baine of Pontoon Beach, IL and Loren Hill of Dewey, IL.

In addition to his parents, James was preceded in death by infant brother, Ricky Price; brother: Robert Dizmang; maternal and fraternal grandparents.

Even though he is gone from our sight, James will live on in our hearts forever.
