

SFC (Ret) Jamie E. Turner

October 4, 1979 - May 20, 2023

Jamie E. Turner lost his battle to PTSD May 20, 2023, at the age of 43. He is survived by his spouse Kathy, his daughter Seren, his father Reggie Turner, his mother Julie Turner Hayes, his grandmother Eileen Walling, his brother Joe Turner, his sister Crystal Christman, his grandfather Harless Turner, and many other family members. Jamie was preceded in death by his grandfather, Gerald Douglas Walling, and his grandmother, Roseann Turner.

Jamie was very active in the Church at Osage Hills. He also never met a stranger. He loved anything with a motor and spent a lot of time working on his vehicles. He was also a proud member of the NRA. After he retired from the military in November 2018, he worked several jobs in concrete and construction.

Visitation will be held for Jamie on July 22, 2023, at the Memorial Chapels and Crematory of Waynesville/St. Robert beginning at 9:00 am with military honors to be rendered at 11:00 a.m. All are welcome to attend.

“ One of my most funny fondest memories was when we were at NTC on the live fire range when we had to dig our fighting positions. Him and I were both ammunition barriers at the time and we had to go get ammo from Binko. I slung all of mine on one shoulder but Turner slung half on one side and half on the other. So on his way back to his position he passed out because the straps choked him out. TIL Valhalla my Brother.

“ Jamie came and worked with MGM on many projects at different locations around the country. He was always considered to be a man of the highest honor and integrity, willing to help out anyway, he could. He spoke frequently and fondly of his family. I know that we will all miss him a lot. I pray that God will somehow bring comfort to his family. If there is anything we can do for his family, as a way to honor him, it would be my great privilege if you would call me.

“ A Brother in Arms. A distant Brother that when we cross paths, we smile, laugh and talk like there were no distance or years passing by. Full of energy and knowledge. I still wear the rig belt daily that you cut from the air drop wat back in baghdad. I remember the excitement you had when you saw the drop pile and we ran othe to it not knowing what you were going to do. Then out pops your knife, you start cutting away and handed me a belt with a big smile. Anyone who knows me knows i wear that belt proudly. It became my duty belt from that day on although was not part of regulation. Knowing your spirit is no liger in the body that expelled the positive energy breaks my heart. I will never forget. I love you Battle.

“ Many of you know that while Jamie was an outstanding student, soldier and living husband and father, he was also a gifted young dog show Junior Handler, at least one time qualifying for Finals at the Westminster Kennel Club dog show. I had known Jamie since he was 7 years old and the thought of him being gone is just unfathomable.
