“ Carrie my mom and I are so sorry for your loss. We worked with her in the nursing home. Sorry this is late but I don't get on Facebook like I used to. So please accept our condolence. Your mom was a very sweet lady and we loved her sense of humor. We tried to get up with her a few times for lunch but our schedules were never the same because we either had dr's appointments or your mom did. We will miss her. Love always Ann Ritchie and Shirley Brown

“ Janet and I worked together for a long time at the nursing home we even stayed in a motel for weeks working in a different place. She was a wonderful person to all the residents she would show each one of the respect, she would bust her butt to take care of them the way the deserved . She was always fun to work with after she figured out if was a good worker , She will missed by a lot of people, she was a very lovely person which reflected in her children. Fly high you are a beautiful angel RIP your friend Brenda
