

Jewell D. Weber-Rand

January 28, 2026

"True to her name, Jewell was a priceless gift, cherished by many."

Born on November 6, 1936, in Waynesville, Missouri, to Howard and Blanche Fuller, Jewell lived a life marked by faith, love, and service. She was a devoted wife, mother, sister, grandmother, great grandmother, and friend whose home and heart were always open. Anyone who walked through her door was welcomed, fed, and made to feel like family.

Jewell was married to her beloved husband, Dale, for 39 years. A small town girl who had never traveled, she stepped into marriage with him and found herself honeymooning in New York City—an adventure she never forgot. While Jewell was a homemaker and spent time raising their children, Jimmy and Karen, Dale worked in the family business, R. Weber and Sons Appliances in Waynesville. During those years, they earned sales trips that took them to places she never imagined she would see, including Hawaii, Spain, and Switzerland. While she enjoyed these experiences, Jewell was always happiest returning home, the place she loved most.

Jewell and Dale along with other members of the Weber family, were proud charter members of First Christian Church of Waynesville, where they were actively involved. Jewell could often be found in the church kitchen preparing fellowship meals, teaching Vacation Bible School, or welcoming and hosting missionaries. Her faith shaped how she lived. They moved to Springfield in 1974 where they became lifelong members of Southland Christian Church.

After their move, Jewell took a job at Kickapoo High School where she was proud to work in the cafeteria for 16 years. It is here that many of her coworkers became lifelong friends. She loved serving the students and they loved coming through her line where they got a smile, a kind word, and one of her chocolate milkshakes. After she retired, she enjoyed many years of lunches with "the girls" from work.

Several years after Dale passed away Jewell met Freeman (Rand). They were married for 17 years. In the early years of their marriage, they spent time camping and traveling. They enjoyed time with their families and took a special interest in their grandchildren. They had many wonderful years together.

Family meant everything to Jewell. Some of her favorite childhood memories were spent with her five siblings, aunts, uncles, and cousins. Throughout her life being with family was always a priority—whether at reunions, holidays, vacations, or simple everyday visits. She found joy in good conversation, sharing meals, and laughter. Her gifts were hospitality & encouragement & she used these freely to pour into those she loved. Her legacy of love, grace, and faith will continue through all who knew her.

She is survived by her daughter: Karen Westfall (Mark) of Mt. Vernon, MO; four grandchildren: Zach Westfall (Kayla) of Mt. Vernon, MO, Zane Westfall, of Concordia, MO, Zeth Westfall (Bonnie) of Chesterfield, MO and Emily Weber of Joplin, MO; eight great grandchildren: Marcus, Jack, Wyatt, Kaidyn, Macy, Nevaeh, Kevin, and Tyson; one sister: Shirley Schweiss of Rolla, MO; several nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Howard and Blanche Fuller. Husband's Dale Weber & Freeman Rand. Son, Jim Weber. Brothers Bill and Bob Fuller. Sisters Dee Baechle, & Joann Bramel.

Rest in peace, Jewell Dean Weber-Rand, a faithful servant and beloved mother, and Oma. Because of her deep, abiding faith, we mourn not as those without hope, but with the confident assurance that we will be reunited in Eternity.

"Well done, good and faithful servant" (Matthew 25:21)

Funeral services were held at 12:00 p.m. Monday, February 2, 2026, in the Memorial Chapels and Crematory of Waynesville / St. Robert with Matt Martin and Les Londeen officiating.
