“ I never knew her. Only talked to her very briefly a time or two. I just found out her name and of her passing at the same time. But I know this, she was a child of God. You could feel it in her presence. I always seen her walking between st Robert and Waynesville. I am sad I never really knew her. But I grieve in her passing. I Will remember her fondly. May God embrace her to his heart.

“ To the family of Joann Stovall.
She will not be forgotten in our small town community. She has a face we all shall remember.

The lady that walked 30 years. I miss her deeply.

Sorry for the family loss. It was great service you all put together for her.

“ To Mrs. Stovall's family, I am sad to hearing of her passing. Praying God provides you with comfort and peace during this difficult time. I enjoyed talking to her when I ran into her at Wal-mart. Mrs. Stovall volunteered in my kindergarten class when I had her son.
