“ I am praying for your family in this time of loss. Rochelle, I wanted you to know that I was thinking about you and if you need help with anything please let me know. When I saw you and Kevin together you could tell that he loved you very much. I know it is hard now but keep your faith. Kevin will be watching over you and your daughter. All of us here at the Moca Resource Center are thinking about you.##imported-begin##Lacie Decker##imported-end##

“ Kevin was a great friend of mine and I will truly miss him. It was just the other day that I ran into him at Evan's, Kevin was so full of happiness as he told me he was a Grandpa for the first time and his new baby daughter was the Apple of his eye! Kevin was a great guy, always had a smile on his face. I am praying that you will have peace and comfort, knowing that Kevin is in God's Hands now. “ Altho' Kevin and I lost touch in the years after graduation, I tho't of him often. I shared some very good times with him in grade school and high school. Kevin and I were the "new kids" our 8 th grade year at Richland. Another good man has been taken from us, but I know God has other plans for him. He was, and still is in my memory, one of a kind, and he will be missed. I cannot say enough good things about Kevin. My tho'ts are with his family at this time.##imported-begin##Scott L. “ Our hearts go out to Kevin's family and loved ones during this very difficult time. May you find comfort knowing he is in God's loving arms now and that someday you will be reunited with him in the kingdom of heaven.

Kevin was a classmate of ours and we will always remember that big ole' grin, contagious laugh, and that witty sense of humor he had.

One of my favorite memories of Kevin was when we were in junior high math class. Our assignment was to fill out checks. Well, Kevin being the jokester that he was, made his payable to "King Kong", it was signed by "Faye Raye" and in the memo he had written " one last fling". It still makes me laugh just thinking about it.

Though Kevin is gone from this earth, he remains in our hearts forever. Rest in Peace, Kevin.
