May 31, 1929 - November 24, 2020

Kinneth grew up in a country home about 3 miles southeast of Swedeborg, Missouri and attended Hickory Grove (Flee Hollow) School. He attended Swedeborg High School and then quit school to go work at General Motor in St. Louis. On January 9, 1951, he was drafted into the Army and served with the Hq Co. 6th Armed Division of Ft. After two years of courting, Kinneth was united in marriage to a young girl from Richland by the name of Mae Louise Manes. They were married on October 2, 1951 in Mountain Home, Arkansas and shared over 69 years of marriage together. They were blessed with many wonderful memories and one child, Lisa Jean York.
