“ In one word my grandmother was magical....it seemed like she could fix anything from a bee sting, broken heart to the big dent in my mom's new car. She had a twinkle in her eyes when she looked at you that made you feel loved unconditionally, imperfections and all. Somehow she made all of us feel like we were her favorite. Some of my favorite memories are spending the summers with her and my cousin Johnny at our cabin on the Salmon River in Riggins Idaho. They were the best times, we got Granny all to ourselves and we loved every minute, every adventure and every story that she had to tell. The food was good too:) Granny could can anything and loved sharing her canned goods with everyone as well. I hope that I am able to be half as good of a grandmother as she was to us. She told me once that she would live forever in all of us because her blood runs thru all of our veins and she will live forever in our hearts. She will be missed so much. Granny and my mother are two strongest women that I have ever known, always there for everyone.

Memories are treasures that time cannot destroy and truly memories are all that we really have all to ourselves. I love you Granny and have so many wonderful memories.

PS I hope that there is one heck of a card game going on up there.

“ I remember all the wonderful times that my father John Baney and aunt Lilly played cards all night, with other family members. They all had a wonderful time. I remember aunt Lilly with love and fond memories. Each of my fathers sisters have a special place in my heart, aunt Lilly has an extra special place... I will miss her. But I bet there is one terrific card game going on... All those, Baney's, great card players all are there... They are having one heck of a good time...I can almost see and hear them now."Shoot the Moon" brother John..."Bid em high and sleep in the street" sounds like aunt Lilly to me. Give a big hug to your brother John, from me... his eldest daughter, Dianna Kay Baney While there are tears here, I am sure there is joy there as all the brothers and sisters are together again, for the best card game in a long long time.... Love to all.

Grandma Sue (as we called her) was a very special lady to us and to our 3 little boys that she loved so much and was good at spoiling them - they still have the Sesame St. wooden puzzles she gave them one Christmas & they are now 43, 40 & 38. She was such an angel caring for Grandpa Herb until his death and a dear friend to his daughter Ethel. We loved her so very much. John Edward (grandson) & Diane Campbell.
