“ C.J. was a fun and happy young man. Each time we met he would ask "What's up?" Looking up I would answer, "The ceiling, the roof, the sky, the stars...." He would grin and say, "Oh, man!" Then he would give me a hug. I loved him.

My condolences to Racheta and April. I always thought you were wonderful people.

“ I will never forget “C.J.’s” smile. His smile was genuine and could light up a room with joy. Whenever we would run into home about town he always had a big hug for you and would ask how you were doing. “C.J.” you will be missed. I look forward to joining you in Heaven’s choir.

My deepest condolences to you Richetta and April. May God surround you with his comforting presence.
