“ Marc, for 30 years we've been in each other's life always. We were just alive, like twins. We became the very best of friends the day we met and from then on we were inseparable, even when we lived in different states we were still inseparable. Our friendship had never faltered nor wavered. We really could always tell what the other one was thinking. We've been thru the worst times and the best times, but no matter what I knew I could get thru anything because I knew you were there and had my back and we always pushed each other thru. For the 1st time in 30 years I've got to find a way to go on and to live my life without you. I don't really know how to do that please watch over me and guide me thru. I love you Marc Allen, always love me. Mama Jan, Mandy, never forget how much he loved you both. So do I. I'm always here. Love you guys
