“ I am so sorry to hear we have lost Margaret. She is one my favorite people in Richland. Many a night when I was working in my Dad's drugstore, she would pop in across the street and brighten up the evening. She always brought a smile. My love and condolences to the family. Margaret was one of a kind and a bright spirit!

“ Margaret was such a special lady! My parents rented the little White House from her when we first moved to town. I enjoyed visiting with her mom, Mrs. Underwood, who lived next door to us. I'll always remember trick-or-treating at Margaret's house and getting full size chocolate Hershey bars!! She will live on in a lot of people's memories!

“ She was an amazing woman. When we first moved back to Richland, she came to Neal’s parents house to welcome “us” home. She always remembered all of our names. Shopping there at Christmas was always a treat! We will miss you.

“ When I was a child my mother would give me $5 to buy each member of our family a Christmas gift... my mother would call Margaret and tell her we were coming... she always met my sister and I at the door of Warren’s store....we would carefully go through our list with her... you would have thought we were spending hundreds of dollars...she took us though the entire store and helped us pick out the perfect gift... she would then gift wrap each one and even put a gift tag on them...somehow we always had exactly the right amount of money..what a sweet precious woman she was....THE JOE AND MARIE MOORE FAMILY ❤️

“ A true lady in every sense of the word. Wayne and I send our heartfelt sympathy to all the Warren family. The last time we visited her at the care center, she and Wayne had the best time talking about "the good ole days" and I was content to listen, learning things I hadn't heard before! Margaret will be missed - a lot.

“ Miss Margaret was a bright spot in & throughout the community she loved. I always enjoyed visiting with her after I married & moved here over 45 years ago. I thought her to be beautiful, intelligent, funny, spunky, & kind. She humbly found ways to bless others.

Her love of reading & keeping up with current world affairs down through the years was amazing to me. What a loss for our little town & to the folks who called her...friend. Miss Margaret may be gone...but she will never be forgotten. So very sorry for your loss.

“ Oh my, what a loss. It seems like I i've known Margaret my whole life. At least I always knew where her house was and the store of course and many of her family members. But I didn't really get to know her until later in life. I remember distinctly one morning having bacon and eggs at the oasis breakfast place with a friend of mine. Margaret very kindly joined us for conversation, and it was extra special because I knew she was afraid of dogs, and I had for many years service dogs, one of which was with me that morning. With a smile on her face Margaret joined a little bit away from the dog and we had a lovely group conversation. She Just seemed to make the world a bit better. Peace and kind memories to the Warren family.

“ We met Mrs Warren at the Methodist Church when we first moved to Richland. She made our family feel so welcome here. The next Sunday she said please stop by my house after church I have something for you. I took home an entire Sunday dinner for my family. Had many interesting conversations with her sharing local history and our family stories. She really made us feel like we belonged in this little town. Our deepest sympathies to the family.
