“ R.I.P. Marvin, you've lived a full,rich life. We met a few years ago and hit it off as friends. I thought the world of you as our freindship grew and as we traded guns and stories of our lives and experiences. You masterfully rebuilt, repaired and fixed numerous guns for me and my other friends and preserved them for future generations. I loved swapping stories of your time in the Air Force, 42 year's of long haul trucking, etc... and my time in the Army and talking about guns, life, deer hunting, fishing etc.. You were like a grandpa figure, mentor and true friend to me and I will never forget you, you will be sorely missed my many people to include me. You left this world way too soon and I wish that we had more time to talk and visit, but that's no longer possible unfortunately. Thanks for your service to our country, your honest friendship, selfless and helpful nature and just being an awesome man.
Sincerely your friend Jim Corley
